ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Domingo Zapata was born in Palma de Mallorca, Spain in 1974 and relocated to New York in 1999, where he became a full-time artist in 2002 after careers on Wall Street and in the music industry. His first major painting sale was to financier George Soros in 2005. Named 'artist to watch' by Whitewall Magazine in 2011, Zapata has since achieved international recognition across media including The New York Times (cover story, 2013), Vanity Fair Italia, Esquire Spain, and the New York Post, which called him 'the new Andy Warhol.' His major public commissions include the Freedom Tower lobby mural in Manhattan, the Times Square vinyl mural (2019), the Colosseum in Rome, and the Plaza Hotel, New York. In 2017 he launched a fashion collection at New York Fashion Week and published his debut novel. His work is held in significant private collections internationally.

ARTWORK DESCRIPTION

Mona Lisa No. 14 is Zapata's most deconstructed treatment of the Leonardo source — the figure overlaid with bold geometric forms in primary colours, the body reduced to a scaffolding of intersecting planes in red, blue, yellow, and white. A red heart anchors the left side while Zapata's signature gestures sweep through the composition. The original face peers out from beneath the visual accumulation with characteristic serenity, the Renaissance icon absorbing all of Zapata's energy without losing its essential composure.

VALUATION

Estimated Gallery Value: $18,000 – $22,000 USD

Insured Value: $36,000 – $44,000 USD

CURATORIAL NOTES

Mona Lisa No. 14 forms part of an exceptional depth of Zapata holdings in the collection. Zapata's market is supported at the highest levels — gallery sales through David Rosen Galleries, Mash Gallery (LA), and The Sphere Gallery, with public commissions at the Freedom Tower, Colosseum, and Times Square establishing his institutional standing. The collection's holdings across multiple series (Mona Lisa, Panda, Bullfighter) offer a compelling overview of the artist's most celebrated subjects.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

Market Context: Zapata's unique acrylic works are actively listed through David Rosen Galleries and Mash Gallery at gallery prices consistent with this valuation. His documented $80,000 gallery listing for comparable unique acrylic works on canvas establishes strong upside for these intimate-format originals. Direct artist provenance with Certificate of Authenticity.
