ARTIST BIOGRAPHY

Domingo Zapata was born in Palma de Mallorca, Spain in 1974 and relocated to New York in 1999, where he became a full-time artist in 2002 after careers on Wall Street and in the music industry. His first major painting sale was to financier George Soros in 2005. Named 'artist to watch' by Whitewall Magazine in 2011, Zapata has since achieved international recognition across media including The New York Times (cover story, 2013), Vanity Fair Italia, Esquire Spain, and the New York Post, which called him 'the new Andy Warhol.' His major public commissions include the Freedom Tower lobby mural in Manhattan, the Times Square vinyl mural (2019), the Colosseum in Rome, and the Plaza Hotel, New York. In 2017 he launched a fashion collection at New York Fashion Week and published his debut novel. His work is held in significant private collections internationally.

ARTWORK DESCRIPTION

Panda USA No. 2 develops the American-flag panda theme with a variant treatment — the crowned panda here rendered in a slightly more graphic register, its red heart worn as a pendant rather than held, the American flag background applied with Zapata's characteristic clean acrylic precision. The two Panda USA canvases function as a natural pair — each complete in itself, together demonstrating Zapata's serial approach to subject matter and the productive variation that repetition generates within his practice.

VALUATION

Estimated Gallery Value: $18,000 – $22,000 USD

Insured Value: $36,000 – $44,000 USD

CURATORIAL NOTES

Panda USA No. 2 forms part of an exceptional depth of Zapata holdings in the collection. Zapata's market is supported at the highest levels — gallery sales through David Rosen Galleries, Mash Gallery (LA), and The Sphere Gallery, with public commissions at the Freedom Tower, Colosseum, and Times Square establishing his institutional standing. The collection's holdings across multiple series (Mona Lisa, Panda, Bullfighter) offer a compelling overview of the artist's most celebrated subjects.

ADDITIONAL NOTES

Market Context: Zapata's unique acrylic works are actively listed through David Rosen Galleries and Mash Gallery at gallery prices consistent with this valuation. His documented $80,000 gallery listing for comparable unique acrylic works on canvas establishes strong upside for these intimate-format originals.
